CAYNE

AN ENTREPRENEUR TAKES HOLD OF THE AMERICAN DREAM

BEHIND A WROUGHT IRON GATE THAT bears its name, Cayne Manor sits on top of Carlsbad Pointe. On this particular day, the Pacific Ocean sparkles with shades of murky blues and subtle grays. Waves roll along lazily. The lush, landscaped property has winding flagstone paths leading to tennis courts, pool and gym. Fruit trees with limbs bearing figs, oranges, kumquats and lemons sit overhead.

Jaeson Cayne, wife Gayle, two-year old twin sons Austen and Kyle sit with the family's two Golden Retrievers.
